AGCO (NYSE: AGCO) is one of the leading, full-range agricultural machinery and infrastructure manufacturers in the world, ranking 296 on the annual Fortune 500 ranking in 2015. When you join AGCO, you join an international team of ~20,000 employees worldwide. Working together, we deliver high-tech solutions to farmers feeding the world. Join us and Grow Every Day. Every Way.

Software Quality Trainee

Summary

Supports the IT Project Initiatives and IT Production Support activities with regular test management administrative support including reporting and providing back-office function for different SDLC management phases. Creates and maintains documents and reports based on requests of project management. Identifies action items in the test management system and contributes with IT team to drive resolution. Works with system administrators to design, implement and test changes. Uses extensive automation to shorten report generation times and reduce manual effort.

Responsibilities

Option 1: Test Support / Project Report prototyping and automation
- Create proper documentations and keep them up to date to ensure maintainability.
- Generate, validate, review and maintain documentation for project management.
- Collaborate with other team members to facilitate team work and knowledge sharing.
- Provide regular status updates to Team Lead about work and personal development related topics to increase efficiency.

Option 2: Functional Test Automation
- Create automated test scripts for SAP ERP testing
- Unit test new / modified test script components as part of the test automation framework
- Produce reports on development progress and quality

Qualifications

Required
- Programming skills in any procedure based programming language (eg. VBA)
- Good command of English (intermediate)
- In-progress studies in relevant field
- Strong MS Office skills

Preferred
- Knowledge of software test processes (ISTQB)